

OUR BOY'S $5 ...SUIT...

It's the "Ace" of our deck; it's the biggest value that brains and skill and experience could manage to produce. Everything about it is "different" and all the "difference" is "betterness."

Trousers are double in seat, the seams are reinforced and taped.

The Coats are built like men's garments, to look shapely and stay so.

The fabrics are chosen with one eye to service and the other the smartness.

TERSELY TOLD.

Pilo McAllister, one of the refugees who went to Nashville some weeks ago, has returned home.

Not as many people in this city today are reading the latest popular novel as are reading you if your wait is in to-day's Journal.

B. R. DeLancey, of the Forbes store, returned last night from Atlanta where he has been for several weeks past.

Elwood de LaRue, of Wm. Johnson & Son's reached the city last night after spending several weeks in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Naylor, of 314 West Government street, are the parents of a fine little baby girl born yesterday afternoon.

S. B. Baker, W. F. Fordham and Lee Fordham, all of Georgia, who came to look after the estate of the late J. I. Stephens, returned to their homes yesterday. The Messrs. Fordham were relatives of Mr. Stephens.

Allie Riera and Jeff McSwain, who have been spending the past few weeks at Gardier's bayou, enjoying fishing and hunting and incidentally keeping away from the yellow fever, have returned home.

During the past month substantial repairs and improvements have been made in the National Hotel building at 126 East Government street, and the place will be reopened by Mrs.
King, Tuesday, the 7th inst. The building has been thoroughly fumigated and sprayed.

The following pupils of the Convent School of Warrington are enlisted to be on the honor roll: Miss Edna Chaffin, of the eighth grade; Miss Bertha Langley, of the fifth grade; Master Magnus Grossjohn, of the seventh grade; Master Joseph Handlen, of the seventh grade.

Perfectly natural. Blue Ribbon concentrated extract of the fresh fruit. "Takes less. Flavors perfect."

CHILD OF MR. AND MRS.
ROSENAU THROWN FROM BUGGY

The child of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rosenou had a narrow escape from death yesterday by being thrown from a buggy. Mr. Rosenau, who has been spending the summer on the bay shore but who is now moving to the city, with his little child in his lap.

Before reaching the city the horse became frightened and shied to one side of the road. The infant was thrown from the arms of its father, and had it not been for a tree, which stopped the buggy would have been run over.

The child was only slightly bruised by the accident.

A HOT WATER BOTTLE STORY.

A man bought a hot water bottle at a "nine cent" store for 50c. We wanted to charge him a dollar for a good one, and he said, "I have saved 50c." But the first time he used the bottle it leaked and the second time it came apart, and then he said, "Oh, that I had my money back!" but he could not get it.

MORAL:

A dollar well spent is better than fifty cents badly saved. Our hot water bottles are made by a reliable firm, and are worth the price we ask because they last and won't leak.
Every bottle guaranteed perfect. Prices $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, depending on size. Don't be like the man in the story.

NEWS NOTES OF GOULDING CAMP

Boys Still Enjoying Life But Long to Return to Homes in the City.

Special to The Journal.

Goulding Relay Camp, Nov. 4.—We are pleased to again hear from our brother R. B. boys at Escambia and to know of their royal living and delightful times. I am not making this reference in reply to their communication in any particular, notwithstanding the broad assertions and insinuations upon our boarding master. We only consider such as mere escapes from a bag of hot air, generated by a conglomeration of egotism and misconnections of the gentleman's ability for newspaper correspondence and not containing enough solid matter to warrant a reply. However, for affording us an opportunity of hearing from them once more and to know that their comforts and luxuries seem to be about equal to ours.

We are all well and enjoying the fresh autumn breeze, fresh pork and yams, and are pleased to note the home coming of the Pensacolians, who refueled from the yellow peril as such bespeaks an early return home for us boys.

The most attractive feature of our amusement now is the base ball games played by the "Fats and Leans." Our last game stood 5 to 16 in favor of the leans.

Mr. Jimmie Fleming is now with the Escambia boys. We are sorry to lose Jimmie as he is our tenor singer in the choir. Be a good boy Jimmie.
Don't take up any bad habits down here with those court attendants.
You might amuse yourself by practicing law in the courts there, as there seems to be a good field for some one to defend the criminals.

We are the recipients of some delicious pumpkin custards which were brought out by Mrs. Lloyd Hahn to her husband Conductor Hahn. The pumpkins were grown in Iowa and brought home by Mrs. Hahn, who has just returned from a visit to her parents in that state. These custards were much enjoyed by all and we tender to Mr. and Mrs. Hahn our appreciation and thanks for the good lady's kind hospitality—with hopes that the pumpkins are not all gone.

Conductor McGill went up to Cottage Hill on the first where he was joined by Deputy Sheriff Smith and killed all the quail allowed them by the law. They also killed one marsh hen which they threw in for good measure. Deputy Sheriff Smith passed through yesterday evening for Pensacola with a string of birds and a big fat "possum" for Sheriff Van Pelt, but as soon as Big Drew spied the possum he cut him down, had him dressed and sent to Mrs. Williams together with a sack of yams for seasoning. We are expecting Drew to break the quarantine law about to-morrow, as such dishes are great inducements.
Our genial Express Messenger, Mr.
Lindsey and Mail Clerk Mr. Fortner attended prayer service near Brent last Sunday night and report a pleasant time and an invitation from the ladies to come again.

Fifteen Stores Burned.

Romny, Russia, Nov. 4.—During the pillage of the Jewish stores, which lasted until yesterday morning fifteen stores were burned to the ground, and many more were sacked. The rioting began when a crowd killed a rich merchant for refusing to take off his hat to a red flag. Many persons were killed.

The Lovers' Leap.

Sappho killed herself by jumping from the Lovers' Leap, a Lencadian cliff. This leap was often taken by lovesick persons, who believed that if they survived the fall they would be effectually cured of a hopeless passion.
The leaps were always witnessed by crowds of spectators, and the would be suicides were in no way interfered with by the state. Boats were in attendance below to pick up the leapers if they came to the surface of the sea after the plunge. Sappho had a passion for a young man who did not return her love and leaped from the cliff in order to be cured. She perished in the fall. So also did Artimisia and many other celebrities.

Pliny tells a curious story of an old Athenian miser who was in love with his cook, and, desiring cure, went to have a look at the cliff. He peeped over, shook his head, went home and married the cook.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Una, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time falls out. This can be prevented.
Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.
Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.
For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 South Palafox street, or sent for in stamps for sample, to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
